

HOME IS WHERE

TESTIMONIALS

“What a heart warming experience it was bringing so many people and their creativity together. It was fascinating to see the many similarities and differences in our experiences and interpretations. But also uplifting, inspiring and very moving too...Good things can rise from the ashes of terrible times and Artspace has certainly got its Phoenix wings on.”

“I was absolutely overwhelmed by last night’s presentation of ‘Home is Where the ART is exhibition’. I personally experienced laughter and tears and was overwhelmed by the diversity of talent...This exhibition will uplift many hearts within the Forest and beyond.”

“The natural world has given me a reason to get up every day and feel positive. I hadn’t picked up a paintbrush in five decades - I love the escapism and peace it has given me recently.”

“I was in self isolation for the first 8 months of lockdown 2020. During this time I used creativity and making as a means of expression and understanding what we were all experiencing.”

“I have really enjoyed developing my artwork over the last year or so... lockdown has enabled me to develop my art style and learn more about how to use social media.”

“Well, thank you for including me in the project. I thoroughly enjoyed the event.”

“Thank you for arranging ‘Home is where the art is’. I so enjoyed producing my 2 hangings which I was so thrilled to see on screen’ ‘Many thanks again for all your hard work.”

TESTIMONIALS

“Thanks so much to the Art Space team for putting on such a great event.”

“The project was a pleasure to be involved with and the exhibition beautifully managed.”

“It was great to be able to take part in the project.”“Thank you for all your hard work.”

“I really enjoyed being part of the ‘Home is Where the Art is’ project. I thought it was so well put together, just lovely! It was a pleasure to be included alongside so many talented artists, thank you.”

“Thank you for everything.”

“Thanks to everyone who made this possible.”

“Thanks for all the work you put into this project, it certainly paid off.”

“Yes, the course was enjoyable. Freddie and I watched the exhibition /show together. I was impressed by the virtual gallery - clever stuff - and the work shown in the gallery was superb. Freddie liked spotting the people, of course - Lizzie, Kim, Nix and Sally. He also really liked the man playing the guitar and singing the blues song”.
