Introduction

Artspace Cinderford are an arts and education based charity based in the Forest of Dean. Established in 1988, the organisation specialises in offering fully inclusive, accessible creative opportunities for people of any age or ability.

Artspace are based at the New Mercury arts centre, Cinderford and offer a wide range of courses and one off workshops for adults and children, including painting and drawing, animation, drama, singing and circus skills.

In addition to the in-house programme, the organisation works extensively on an out-reach basis, at festivals, events and in schools, care homes and village venues.

Artspace are delighted to announce our new programme for the Autumn 2023 term! We are offering a fantastic mixture of 'in person' classroom based and 'distance learning' (online) courses.

Courses For Adults

Adult Education

Artspace offer both online and in person courses funded by Adult Education Gloucestershire. For online courses we will deliver a package of art materials directly to your home which will contain all the materials that you need to participate. Classes will be delivered via weekly Zoom workshops. You will also be given access to a secure learner area on our website www.artspacecinderford.org to access additional resources and support.

For in person courses all materials required for each class will be provided.

Course Fees

Our courses for adults start from as little as £35 for an 8 week course and include all materials. Concessionary rates are available for those with a disability or who are on means tested benefits. FREE places are available on select courses for those with fewer than 5 GCSE's (level 2) or less than a level 2 maths qualification. If you think you may qualify for a concessionary rate, please contact us to discuss your eligibility.

To express your interest in a place or for more information about a course, please email: sue@artspacecinderford.org and provide your name, phone number and the title of the course you are interested in, and we will get back to you.

MONDAY

Knitting for Beginners, with Cherry Lyne

Starts Monday 25th September 2023
/ 8 weeks with a half term break

12:15pm – 2:30pm (at Artspace Cinderford)

Cost: £35/£15 concessions

Learn the rudiments of knitting while you create your own scarf. Together we will learn and practice the basic stitches that make up so many garments we love. All materials supplied and this is an in-person course aimed at the complete beginner. We will be learning knit, pearl, rib and moss stitch, as well as casting on and off and you will go home with a gorgeous scarf you have made yourself! Those who attended last term who wish to continue will have the opportunity to expand their range of stitches either by continuing their current project or starting a new one. Returning knitters are welcome to extend their knowledge/ experience.

Creation Stories, with Aileen Wright

Starts Monday 25th September 2023
/ 8 weeks with half term break

3:00pm – 4:00pm (on Zoom)

Cost: £45/£25 concessions

In this online class we will explore the vast and fascinating subject of spirituality in art. We will look at representations of indigenous totems and early pagan fertility symbols, the very decorative gods and goddesses of India, the art of Ancient Greece through to the very Eastern inspired early Christian frescos and icons. And to bring us to more recent times we will consider how early abstract painters such as Hilma Af Klint and Piet Mondrian were very much guided in their work by their own spiritual beliefs. Inspired by all of this, we will create exciting, colourful paintings and mixed media artworks as well as experimenting with the sculptural possibilities of air-drying clay.

SATURDAY SERIES

Mindful Photography, with Andy Squiff

Saturday 30th September 2023

/ 10:30am - 4:30pm

(at Artspace Cinderford)

Cost: £40 including materials.

Andy Squiff is a designer and photographer who has worked in the creative industry for over 30 years, he thrives on the inspiration he finds in nature and enjoys sharing his passion for both creativity and the local area.

This workshop is about finding your creativity and not getting too hung up in technical details. It is suitable for professionals or beginners, you can bring any camera that you regularly use, including your phone. Before we start taking any shots we will take time to relax using breathwork and qi gong to help us awaken us to the present moment and connect with our environment, discovering new ways to look at the world and find beauty in everyday reality. Cinderford offers urban and natural environments to explore, and we can get creative juxtaposing both. This session offers an opportunity to slow down and play, it will leave you feeling inspired and positive.

Please bring a packed lunch.

Creative Health Programmes

Journeys is an early intervention 'Arts on Prescription' programme created in collaboration with NHS Gloucestershire ICB and Young Minds Matter. The programme aims to help reduce stress and anxiety and boost low mood, wellbeing and self-esteem of children and young people by enabling participation in creative activities.

Suitable for young people aged 8 - 12 years, in Autumn 2023 a seven-week programme using visual arts and crafts will be delivered by Kate Fellows and Lizzie Godden. Places are free but limited to ensure an appropriate group size and will be allocated on a first come first served basis upon receipt of a suitable referral form.

Venue: Cinderford Artspace, 3 Woodside Street, Cinderford GL14 2NL

Time: Monday 2nd October - Monday 20th November 5:30pm – 7:00pm (no session on 30th Oct for half term)

Due to this being an Arts on Prescription programme a referral form will need to be completed for each child prior to attending. The referral may come from a class teacher, your school's mental health lead, a Senco or other member of school staff.

For all enquiries and to request a referral form please contact Creative Health Project Manager, Grace End on creativehealth@artspacecinderford.org or on 01594 825111.
